FAVOR INCOME TAX FOR DEFENSE NEEDS

Levy On Large Financial Gainers Urged By New York Organization.

Urging the President to advise Con gress to increase the tax on large in evenue needed by the Federal Govern ment for preparedness and other mat ment for preparedness and other mat-ters, the Society to Lower Rents and Reduce Taxes on Homes, with head-quarters in New York, has addressed an open letter on the subject to the White House.

It is represented that from $200,000,000 to $250,000,000 could be secured through "a rapidly progressive rate upon in-comes in excess of $100,000."

The letter, which is signed by Frederic

The letter, which is signed by Frederic Leubuscher, president, and Benjamir Marsh, executive secretary, declared 'a contemptible, but serious, effort is being made in this State by Republican leaders to embarrass the Federal Administration by imposing an income ta-for local and State purposes in order t prevent the Federal Government from securing a proper amount of reven-from this source."

Says Wage-earners Pay.

Attention of the President is directed the fact "that most of the revenue for governmental purposes is now de-rived from the wage-earners of the country and from those with small incomes.

"It is pointed out that the revenue problem is increasingly serious for Federal. State, and local governments, due to the need of large expenditures for preparedness and the enormous debts of many States and eitles resulting in large interest charges, uniquely that of New York city, where the interest charges on our debt amount to $55,000.000, or nearly one-third of our total current budget for local purposes."

Urged By Mills.

The letter then says: "Senator Ogder ... Mills, a Republican, and chairman f the joint legislative committee on exation of New York State, openly rkes States and localities to adout the ncome tax before the Federal Covern ent dries up this source of revenue,
"Naturally, if States and localities

ure any part of their revenue by an ome tax, which should be reserved national purposes, the Federal Gov. cure any part of their revenue by an income tax, which should be reserved for national purposes, the Federal Government must increase the already unfairly heavy burden of taxation upon the workers of the country.

"We request that you urge upon Congress to increase the tax rate upon large incomes. In our judgment, at least $200,000,000 or $250,000,000 should be secured by the Pederal Government from an income tax, through a rapidly progressive rate upon incomes in excess of $100,000. England now levies a tax of 34 per cent upon incomes over $500,000. The rate in this country is only 6 per cent and the total yield from the individual income tax last year was a little over $11,000,000.

It is declared the proper source of revenue for cities is ground rents, created by the people, but mostly going into the pockets of a few land owners, and that the President will do the workers a great service by relleving them as suggested from part of the unjust burden of taxation a burden "which the privileged classes seek to increase."
